

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SJR 481

February 6, 2014

SUMMARY OF BILL: Designates February 6, 2014, and every February 6th each subsequent year as State Constitution Day in Tennessee in commemoration of the adoption of the first Constitution of Tennessee in Knoxville on February 6, 1796. Requires the Constitution of Tennessee to be read aloud in both the Senate and House of Representatives annually by any legislators desiring to participate.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- This day shall not be a legal holiday as defined in Tenn. Code Ann. § 15-1-101. Therefore, the fiscal impact to state government is not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Lucian D. Geise".

Lucian D. Geise, Executive Director

/kml